Section 06 – Children(s) Records

Please note: Personal information about a child will only be disclosed to parents, foster carers and agents if staff are satisfied that the child’s informed consent has been freely given, or it is in their best interest. Information will only be disclosed to those parents/agents who have signed the form. Therefore, both parents should sign the form if this is a joint application.

We will seek the consent of children and young people where they are of an age and understanding to give informed consent freely to release the documents (their data) to you, even if you have parental responsibility for them. If they are deemed competent to make this decision, we will honour it. Should they refuse to consent, we may not disclose the information to you.

Please read the following Subject Access Request Guidance Notes carefully and complete the checklist at the end.

Subject Access Request Guidance Notes

Subject to certain exemptions, you have a right to be told whether we hold any personal information about you and a right to have a copy of that information. Any third party information held within your records will be removed from any copies given to you. You are not entitled to be given information about someone else, unless that person agrees and gives their written consent. If you wish to discuss any aspect of your request; please telephone The Children’s Centre Data Controller on 810000.

A Subject Access Request cannot be processed without the data subject’s (person whose details are being requested) signature (consent).

Agents (for example: Advocates) may request information on behalf of a data subject. The Children’s Centre retains the right in certain circumstances to establish informed consent with an individual if an Agent is acting on their behalf prior to disclosure.

A copy of any information supplied must be collected by you, signed and dated as received.

A. Section 01 - Proof of Identity

We need to be satisfied that you are who you say you are. Consequently, two forms of evidence of identity will be required to process your application; one photographic proof of identity (such as your passport or driving licence) and one proof of your address (from recent utility bills or bank statements).

To help establish your identity, you must submit a copy of one document from each of the following categories with your application:

Confirmation of identity:

- a) E.g. Full driving licence, passport, IOM Government 18+ card etc.
- b) Confirmation of address:
E.g. Full driving licence (“old-style” licence)*, recent utility bill, bank or credit card statement; or other equivalent/similar official document – it must show your name and address.

*Your full (not provisional) driving licence will be sufficient for both categories provided it is an “old-style” two part licence that includes your home address.

I am providing the following types of identification:
a)		b)

B. Timescale

The Children's Centre has 40 calendar days to process a Subject Access Request from when this completed form is received. Your application will be processed in accordance with Section 5, Data Protection Act.

C. Section 01 - Who is a representative?

A representative is usually a legal company who has been employed by you to deal with your legal matters. In addition, anyone helping a friend or relative make a Subject Access Request because they are unable to take care of their own matters is also considered to be their representative. In all these instances, except if the applicant is a child, Section 4 of the form must be signed by the person (data subject) whose information is being requested. We retain the right to confirm validity of the request by contacting the data subject direct.

D. Section 02 -Records Requested

This section asks about the type of information required. If you are able to provide further details about the information you are requesting then please detail this.

E. Section 05 - Previous Subject Access Requests (if relevant)

This information helps us to link any requests that may have been made previously about the same person.

F. Section 06 - Children(s) Records

This section is to be used if you are requesting your child(s) records.

Please note:

Personal information about a child will only be disclosed to parents, foster parents and agents if staff are satisfied that the child's informed consent has been freely given, or it is in his/her best interest. Information will only be disclosed to those parents/agents who have signed the form. Therefore, both parents should sign the form if this is a joint application.

We will seek the consent of children and young people where they are of an age and understanding to give informed consent freely to release the documents (their data) to you, even if you have parental responsibility for them. If they are deemed competent to make this decision, we will honour it. Should they refuse to consent, we will not disclose the information to you.

G. Section 06 - What do I do if I want data that belongs to my spouse or my child/children?

For a spouse they should complete their own application form and enclose their own Form of Authority/ID.

Proof of parental responsibility, for example, a birth certificate may be requested in addition to the data subject's own identification. We may also ask for further documentation if necessary.

Who can I contact if I have any questions?

Data Controller - Tel : 810000

Data Processor - Tel : 810000

What happens next?

The Children's Centre will acknowledge your request in writing and start processing your records.

If you do not receive a written acknowledgement within 7 working days of postage, contact the above.

If your request is valid but we are unable to identify you we will advise you of this and close your request. We will also return your request along with any enclosures and fee.

Please note: The period of 40 calendar days in which we must respond to your request cannot commence until we are satisfied that proper documentation has been received. If insufficient identification is provided, your application may be delayed.
